

MIRAMAR

London | Philadelphia

DES Joins Miramar To Form Miramar Global

A leading UK based executive search agency has merged with US based firm to form a global search organisation.

LONDON, DECEMBER, 2017

Miramar Executive Search has officially announced a merger with US-based, DES Recruitment Inc, an executive search and talent management firm specialising in the Technology, Industrial and Healthcare sectors.

Since being founded in 2008 Miramar Executive Search have built a strong reputation serving US multinationals in the Americas as well as across EMEA and Asia. Similarly, DES Recruitment Inc. has a great depth of experience in the North American market with their fourteen-year successful trading history. This experience, which spans the technology, professional services and industrial sectors in a perfect complement to Miramar's track record in these markets.

Andrew Stoneham-Knott, Managing Partner of Miramar Global, welcomes John Hodge, Founder and Managing Partner of DES Recruitment and his team. Hodge will formally take on the role as Managing Partner in North America with immediate effect and says,

“Combining forces with Miramar allows us to offer a global platform and a scalable solution with a shared vision that will create unlimited value to our customers. By joining forces, we are committed to enhancing our ability to deliver market-leading services to create more value and provide our clients with a strategic competitive advantage.”

Now offering a worldwide platform the firm hopes to deliver a best in class service that will meet the demands of existing clients as well as enhanced their capability to support new clients in new geographies.

For more information on the merger please read our full article.