

MIRAMAR

London | Philadelphia

Global Search Organisation Choose to Support UK Youth-Work Charity

LONDON, FEBRUARY, 2018

Miramar Global would like to announce that they are partnering with the leading youth-work charity, Redthread.

The global search practice is proud to partner with Redthread as their charity for 2018 to support their continued work and growth.

As the first hospital-based violence-intervention charity in the UK, Redthread are a pioneering and innovative organisation who aim to support and empower young people in our capital and beyond.

“The safety, happiness and health of young people is pertinent to us all. Redthread’s work and their achievements to date are admirable and humbling” said Andrew Stoneham-Knott, Miramar CEO.

“Through Miramar’s capability and experience in scaling and transforming our customers’ businesses, we will be providing our services to Redthread, pro bono, to support their geographical expansion and continued organisational growth in addition to helping fundraise at events throughout the year. We are proud to partner with Redthread and to be part of their next stages of development”.

John Poyton, CEO at Redthread said: “We are delighted Miramar has chosen Redthread as their charity of the year. It’s an exciting time of growth for Redthread and having Miramar’s expertise in workforce development and scaling and transforming businesses is invaluable. We also look forward to fundraising alongside Miramar’s staff at events this year and we are grateful for all their support so far.”

Miramar Global recently discussed the importance of societal impact for organisations and are certainly advocates of the benefits of charitable work for everyone involved.